

RMPP Weekly Reflections

Unit 9 Reflection

Unit 9 allowed insight into analysing data. Following the statistical exercises in Unit 8, the focus was on analysing chart data which helps gain interpretations. Using techniques to allow efficient data coding meant the opportunity arose to present the data in easier-to-interpret charts.

Following the Research Project presentation outline feedback, this unit also focused on exploring the ideas presented, considering potential artefacts to be made and data collection methodology.